Crewing Bulletin

September 2019

ARGENTINA CUSTOMS REGULATIONS

All Crewmembers

SIGNING OFF IN ARGENTINA

All crewmembers signing off in Argentina are reminded of the following:

- Provide correct and complete information when filling out the Crew Effect Declaration form.
- Power tools and equivalent devices are generally prohibited to be brought in.
- Excessive quantities of chocolates, slippers and other goods are generally not accepted, even if they are correctly declared on the form.

WORKING EMAIL ADDRESS

All Crewmembers

Crewmembers are reminded to have their own, secure personal email address.

The email address should be active and working.
The email address should be accessible to the crewmember alone.
The email address should be registered with the office.

This is so the crewmember can have access to Bow News, and notifications from ShipMoney and to the payslip portal (for Filipino seafarers).

For updates on email address and other contact information, please reach out to the following:

Filipino seafarers: Crew and Family Affairs
NWE seafarers: Eva Storeide
Brazilian seafarers: Adriana Gomes de Souza